This matter is before the court on the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [24]. The parties are working toward a plea agreement resolution of this matter but require additional time to do so because this case presents voluminous and complex facts that interrelate to other jurisdictions. For good cause shown,

IT IS ORDERED that the Unopposed Motion to Continue Trial [24] is granted, as follows:

1. The jury trial now set for June 5, 2023, is continued to September 18, 2023.
2. In accordance with 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A), the court finds that the ends of justice will be served by granting this continuance and outweigh the interests of the public and the defendant in a speedy trial. Any additional time arising as a result of the granting of this motion, that is, the time between today's date and September 18, 2023, shall be deemed excludable time in any computation of time under the requirement of the Speedy Trial Act. Failure to grant a continuance would deny counsel the reasonable time necessary for effective preparation, taking into account the exercise of due diligence. 18 U.S.C. § 3161(h)(7)(A) & (B)(iv).

DATED: May 25, 2023.
